

Central Adriatic

This region is the well of Croatia's natural beauty which is held across two national parks, Kornati and Krka as well as across countless islands and isles of the Zadar and Šibenik archipelago. This area is abundant with quality fish, excellent restaurants which lie along the shores and unrivalled landscape. People are extremely friendly, and the many islands give shelter to the land from the open sea, and as such this gives an excellent terrain for all kinds of sporting events upon the sea.

The islands of the central Adriatic also offer many extraordinary locations for hosting a variety of events in the rustic ambience of „the Mediterranean as it once was“. Also, you are able to combine sailing on the gentle sea with hiking through the rugged rocky hills in the national park of Pakenica or on the cliffs of the natural park of Telašæica. Visit the Zlarin coral reefs and sea-sponge harvesters of Kaprij, see the way life and work of the people and discover how they live and work together. Give a gift to your clients, employees and business partners in the form of a personalized souvenir which they will treasure forever. The possibilities are limitless. The Adriatic Team workshop with a great satisfaction can put together an offer which will answer all your wishes, ideas and eventualities.

Agana

Marina Agana is situated in the vicinity of Trogir. The town was situated as a summer villa for bishops of Trogir town in the 10th century. Only a 10 minute drive from Trogir makes this marina an excellent choice when you want to experience small town qualities and at the same time enjoy the bustling Trogir sea-front. From this marina it is easy to get to the islands of the Split and Šibenik archipelago.

Rogoznica

Marina Frapa in the center of Rogoznica, is a beautiful town half way between Šibenik and Trogir, it has a modern and high quality of civil installation, excellent restaurants and an amazing position from which during summer you can easily access the islands of the Šibenik archipelago, and two national parks – N.P. Kornati and N.P. Krka. On the other side if you take the southern route, there are the islands of the Split archipelago including the islands of Vis and Hvar.

Kremik

The marina, in the vicinity of Primošten, is separated from the town by only a 5 minute drive. Yet it has a wide range of charter yachts and an excellent position as well as the Frapa Marina in Rogoznica

Šibenik

The marina, in the vicinity of Primošten, is separated from the town by only a 5 minute drive. However, it offers a wide choice of charter boats and a position which offers the same advantages as Frapa Marina in Rogoznica.

Murter

Island Murter is true nautical “mecca” as it holds three marinas; Betina, Hramina and Jezera. The island is connected with the main land which makes it very accessible from any part of Croatia. The vicinity of two national parks and numerous islands and the isles of the Šibenik and Zadar archipelago make this island extremely attractive for short team-building and corporate sailing programs.

Biograd na Moru

Biograd is known and nautical center of the Central Adriatic because of its position, wide tourist offers and a wide range of boats which are situated in two marinas at the center of the town. The waters of Biograd are perfect for organization of regattas because of its microclimate and surrounding of isles. In these perfect waters you will almost never find a sea too rough, rather you will experience an ideal sea for regatta sailing.
