

Robert Kurek, Elteh d.o.o.

Even though we had limited finances, the Adriatic Team prepared for us a program which was really worthy of thanks which held for us useful games, living and working together in nature and excellent food. As we on this trip defined and solved several problems within the communication of our firm, I am looking back at this team building as a combination of business and pleasure.